(c) Removal of Exhibits from Court. Exhibits that are in the physical custody of the Clerk ~~shall~~must be removed by the party responsible for the exhibits (i) if no appeal has been taken, at the expiration of the time for taking an appeal, or (ii) if an appeal has been taken, within ~~twenty-eight (~~28~~)~~ days after the record on appeal has been returned to the Clerk. Parties failing to comply with this Local Rule ~~shall~~may be notified by the Clerk to remove their exhibits and, ~~upon failure to do so within twenty-eight (28) days of such notification,~~ the Clerk may dispose of the exhibits upon failure to do so 28 days after such notification.

(d) Documents under Seal.

(i) ~~Except as otherwise ordered by the Court, any entity~~Any filer seeking to file a document (a "Proposed Sealed Document") under seal must file a motion requesting such relief (a "Sealing Motion") no later than ~~three (~~3~~)~~ business days after the filing of the Proposed Sealed Document. The Proposed Sealed Document ~~shall~~must be filed separately from the Sealing Motion as a restricted document in accordance with the Court's CM/ECF procedures.

~~(ii)~~ The Sealing Motion ~~(A) shall include a certification of counsel from Delaware counsel made in accordance with sub-part (d)(iv) hereof and (B) except as otherwise ordered by the Court or as provided in sub-part (d)(v) hereof, shall~~must be accompanied by a separately filed proposed redacted version of the Proposed Sealed Document in a form suitable to appear on the Court's public docket (the "Proposed Redacted Document"). ~~The Proposed Redacted Document shall be filed.~~

(~~iii~~ii) If the Proposed Sealed Document is known by the filer ~~thereof~~ to contain ~~information that has been designated by another~~

~~entity as confidential pursuant to a protective order, contract or applicable law or as otherwise requiring protection for the benefit of another entity pursuant to section 107 of the Bankruptcy Code (such rights, "Confidentiality Rights" and any such entity holding Confidentiality Rights, a "Holder of Confidentiality Rights"), the filer thereof,~~ another entity's confidential information then (i) prior to ~~the~~ filing ~~of~~ the Sealing Motion, ~~shall~~the filer must attempt to confer in good faith with ~~the Holder of Confidentiality Rights~~such other party in an effort to reach agreement concerning ~~what~~the extent of information ~~contained in the Proposed Sealed Document~~that must remain sealed ~~from public view.~~ and (ii) the Sealing Motion must be accompanied by an averment of Delaware counsel that a reasonable effort has been made to reach agreement on what information must remain sealed or the basis for the moving party not making such effort.

~~(iv) The certification of counsel contained in the Sealing Motion shall include the certification of Delaware counsel for the filer thereof as to one or more of the following, as appropriate: (a) that counsel for the filer of the Sealing Motion and the Holder of Confidentiality Rights (or counsel thereto) have conferred in good faith and reached agreement concerning what information contained in the Proposed Sealed Document must remain sealed from public view; (b) that counsel for the filer of the Sealing Motion and the Holder of Confidentiality Rights (or counsel thereto) have conferred in good faith and been unable to reach agreement concerning what information contained in the Proposed Sealed Document must remain sealed from public view; (c) that the filer of the Sealing Motion has been unable to confer with the Holder of Confidentiality Rights (or counsel thereto), with an explanation of the reason(s) no such conference could occur; (d) that it would be futile for the filer of the Sealing Motion to attempt to confer with the Holder of Confidentiality Rights (or counsel thereto), with an explanation of the reason(s) establishing such futility;(e) to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of counsel for the filer of the Sealing Motion, the Proposed Sealed Document does not contain information subject to Confidentiality Rights of another Holder of Confidentiality Rights; and/or (f) that counsel for~~

~~the filer of the Sealing Motion believes that the entire Proposed Sealed Document should be under seal, such that no Proposed Redacted Document can be filed with the Sealing Motion.~~

~~(v)~~ ~~In the event that the~~(iii) The filer of the Sealing Motion ~~determines in good faith, after attempting to confer with the Holder of Confidentiality Rights as provided in sub-part (d)(iii) hereof (unless the filer of the Sealing Motion has certified that such attempt to confer is not possible or would be futile), that the entire Proposed Sealed Document should be placed under seal such that no Proposed Redacted Document can be filed with the Sealing Motion, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sub-part (d)(ii) hereof, the filer of the Sealing Motion shall be excused from the obligation to file a Proposed Redacted Document pending further order of the Court. For the avoidance of doubt, this sub-part (d)(v) does not excuse the filer of a Sealing Motion from the obligation to file a Proposed Redacted Document merely because of (A) the existence of a dispute with a Holder of Confidentiality Rights that involves less than the entire Proposed Sealed Document or (B) the inability of the filer of the Sealing Motion to determine whether a portion of the Proposed Sealed Document that is less than the entire Proposed Sealed Document is subject to Confidentiality Rights of another Holder of Confidentiality Rights. In either such event, the filer of the Sealing Motion shall~~must use reasonable efforts to file a Proposed Redacted Document that leaves unredacted to the fullest extent possible those portions of the Proposed Sealed Document that the filer reasonably believes are not subject to ~~Confidentiality Rights~~confidentiality rights held or asserted by the filer or another ~~Holder of Confidentiality Rights.~~ party. However, if the filer determines in good faith that the entire Proposed Sealed Document should be placed under seal, the filer of the Sealing Motion is excused from the obligation to file a Proposed Redacted Document pending further order of the Court.

(~~vi~~iv) In the event the Court grants relief concerning a Sealing Motion that requires additional or different redactions ~~different from those contained in the Proposed Redacted Document (or if the Court grants relief requiring the filing of a redacted version of a Proposed Sealed Document where no prior Proposed Redacted Document was filed)~~, counsel for the movant ~~shall~~must file ~~within one (1) business day after the Court's ruling is~~

~~issued~~ a final form of the publicly viewable version of the Proposed Sealed Document (the "Final Redacted Document") with the sealed portion(s) redacted consistent with the Court's ruling ~~and filed in accordance with applicable CM/ECF procedures~~within 1 business day after the Court's ruling is issued. The Final Redacted Document ~~shall~~must be filed and called Final Redacted Version of "[Final Redacted Document ~~title~~Title]".

(~~vii~~v) In the event the Court denies the Sealing Motion, the Clerk ~~shall~~will take such action as the Court may direct.

(~~viii~~vi) If a Sealing Motion is filed in connection with a motion or application or with an objection, reply or sur-reply related to any such motion or application, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a motion to shorten notice ~~shall~~is not ~~be~~ required and the Court will consider the Sealing Motion at the applicable hearing date and any objections to the Sealing Motion may be presented at the hearing.

(~~ix~~vii) Except with respect to redactions subject to Local Rule 9037-1 or as otherwise ordered by this Court, no document containing any redaction(s) made by a filer of a Proposed Sealed Document may be filed ~~with the Clerk's Office~~ unless the filer has previously filed or simultaneously files an unredacted copy of the same under seal and follows all requirements of this subsection with respect to the same.

~~(x)~~ ~~For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this sub-part~~(viii) Nothing in this Local Rule 9018-1(d) is intended to or shall modify any rights or obligations any entity has in connection with confidential information or information potentially subject to protection under ~~Section~~section 107 of the ~~Bankruptcy~~ Code.

(e) Order Authorizing Future Filing of Documents under Seal. If an order has been signed granting a motion under Local Rule 9018-1(d) and authorizing the filing of future documents under seal, the related docket number of the applicable order must also be included on the cover sheet. ~~Any document filed under seal under a previously entered order of the Court shall be filed as a restricted document and electronically docketed in accordance with CM/ECF procedures.~~

(f) Confidentiality. If any information or documents are designated confidential by the producing party at the time of production ~~and the parties have not stipulated to a confidentiality agreement, until such an agreement has been agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Court~~, disclosure ~~shall~~must be limited to members and employees of the law firm representing the receiving party and such other persons as to which the parties agree until a confidentiality agreement has been agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Court. Such persons are under an obligation to keep such information and documents confidential and to use them only for purposes of the contested matter or the proceeding with respect to which they have been produced. Additionally, parties may stipulate to the application of this ~~rule~~Local Rule in connection with informal discovery conducted outside a contested matter or adversary proceeding (e.g., a statutory committee's investigation of the validity, perfection or amount of a secured creditor's prepetition lien), in which case the documents and information produced ~~shall~~must be used only for the purpose defined by the parties' stipulation.

(g) Use of Sealed Documents. If a party intends to use a document which has been previously placed under seal at a hearing or in connection with briefing, a copy of the sealed document (in an envelope and prominently marked "CHAMBERS COPY") ~~shall~~must be provided to the Court in the hearing binder delivered to Chambers in accordance with Local Rule 9029-3 or as otherwise required by the presiding Judge. After the hearing is concluded or the motion is decided, the Court will, at its discretion, destroy or return the Chambers copy of the sealed document to the sender.

~~(h) Approval of Confidentiality Agreements. If Court approval of a confidentiality agreement is sought other than through a motion, at least four (4) business days prior to the filing of a proposed form of order to approve a confidentiality agreement (the "Review Period"), the party or parties seeking entry of such an order must submit the proposed form of order and confidentiality agreement to counsel for the United States Trustee for review and comment. If the Office of the United States Trustee does not provide comments by the end of the Review Period or any extension thereof, or provides comments that have been resolved, the confidentiality agreement may be filed under certification of counsel with a representation by counsel that this Local Rule has been complied with and that the Office of the United States Trustee does not oppose approval of the confidentiality agreement. If the Office of the United States Trustee has comments to the confidentiality agreement that cannot be resolved consensually within the Review Period (or any extension thereof), the parties may set the matter for the next-scheduled omnibus hearing date in the cases or, in instances where approval of the confidentiality agreement is time-sensitive, request a status conference with the Court.~~

(h) Approval of Confidentiality Agreements. In connection with any confidentiality agreement approved by order of the Court other than under a motion to seal:

(i) Any provision of such agreement or order that preauthorizes the filing of material under seal does not relieve a filer from the obligation to comply with the provisions of Local Rule 9018-1(d); and

(ii) Any request to seal an exhibit or close the courtroom at a hearing or trial (or any objection thereto) will be considered by the Court in connection with such hearing or trial notwithstanding any contrary provision in such agreement or order.

An order submitted to chambers following a hearing must be accompanied by a CoC and uploaded to CM/ECF. The CoC procedure may also be utilized ~~under such~~in other circumstances as the Court directs, including submitting a revised order following a hearing, an order approving a stipulation that does not require notice under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019, and an order setting omnibus hearings as provided for in Local Rule 2002-1(a)(i).

The CoC must state whether the revised or agreed form of order has been reviewed and approved by all the parties affected by the order. ~~—A~~The CoC ~~shall~~must be served on all affected parties.

(b) If there is an applicable objection deadline, the CoC may not be filed until ~~twenty-four (~~24~~)~~ hours after that deadline.

(c) ~~In~~A CoC and any related documents may be delivered immediately upon filing to the presiding Judge in accordance with chambers procedures. Upon receipt of the documents, the Court may enter the order without further notice or hearing and, once the order is entered, the hearing scheduled on the matter may be cancelled without further notice. In any cases in which a Notice of Agenda is required under Local Rule 9029-3 and ~~where the revised or agreed form of order has been finalized in advance of the deadline for the filing of the Notice of Agenda, the~~the order is not yet entered at the time of the agenda's filing, Delaware counsel ~~responsible for the filing of the Notice of Agenda shall include the CoC pleadings in the CNO binder that is otherwise required under these Local Rules. In all other cases, the CoC pleadings shall be submitted~~for the debtor or foreign representative or trustee, as applicable, must submit to the Court the CoC and all related documents in the "CNO/CoC Binder" in accordance with ~~each respective Judge's chambers procedures. This statement ~~shall~~must constitute an application for designation to the ADR Program. Each applicant ~~shall~~must certify that the applicant has completed appropriate mediation or arbitration training or has sufficient experience in the mediation or arbitration process and that he/she satisfies the qualifications set forth in ~~9019-2~~9019- 2(b)(ii). If requested by the Court, each applicant hereunder ~~shall~~must agree to accept at least one pro bono appointment per year. If after serving in a pro bono capacity insufficient matters exist to allow for compensation, credit for pro bono service ~~shall~~will be carried into subsequent years in order to qualify the mediator or arbitrator to receive compensation for providing service as a mediator or arbitrator. In order to be eligible for appointment by the ADR Program Administrator, each applicant ~~shall~~must meet the qualifications ~~sent~~set forth in ~~9019-2~~9019- 2(b)(ii).

Non-attorney applicants ~~shall~~must make the same certification required of attorney applicants contained in Local Rule ~~9019-2~~9019- 2(b)(ii)(A).

(iii) Court Certification. The Court in its sole and absolute determination on any reasonable basis shall grant or deny any application submitted under this Local Rule. Program of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware without respect to persons and will do so equally and with respect."

(d) Removal from Register of Mediators. A person ~~shall~~will be removed from the Register of Mediators (i) at the person's request, (ii) by Court order entered on the sole and absolute determination of the Court, or (iii) by the ADR Program Administrator if the person (1) has failed to timely submit the annual reaffirmation as required in ~~9019-2~~Local Rule 9019-2(b)(iv), or (2) has not been selected or appointed as a mediator in a dispute for ~~three (3)~~ consecutive calendar years. If removed from the Register of Mediators, the person ~~shall~~will be eligible to file an application for reinstatement after the passage of one year from the date of removal.

(e) Appointment.

(i) Selection. Upon assignment of a matter to mediation or arbitration in accordance with these Local Rules and unless special circumstances exist as determined by the Court, the parties ~~shall~~will select a mediator or arbitrator. If the parties fail to make such selection within the time as set by the Court, then the Court ~~shall~~will appoint a mediator or arbitrator. A mediator or arbitrator ~~shall~~will be selected from the Register of Mediators, unless the parties stipulate and agree to a mediator or arbitrator not on the Register of Mediators.

(ii) Inability to Serve. If the mediator or arbitrator is unable to or elects not to serve, he or she ~~shall~~must file and serve on all parties, and on the ADR Program Administrator, within ~~fourteen (14)~~ days after receipt of notice of appointment, a notice of inability to accept the appointment. In such event, the parties ~~shall~~must select an alternate mediator or arbitrator.

(iii) Disqualification.

(A) Disqualifying Events. Any person selected as a mediator or arbitrator may be disqualified for bias or prejudice in the same manner that a Judge may be disqualified under 28 U.S.C. § 44. Any person selected as a mediator or arbitrator ~~shall~~will be disqualified in any matter where 28 U.S.C. § 455 would require disqualification if that person were a Judge.

(B) Disclosure. Promptly after receiving notice of appointment, the mediator or arbitrator ~~shall~~must make an inquiry sufficient to determine whether there is a basis for disqualification under this Local Rule. The inquiry shall include, but shall not be limited to, a search for conflicts of interest in the manner prescribed by the applicable rules of professional conduct for attorneys and by the applicable rules pertaining to the profession of the mediator or arbitrator.

(C) Objection Based on Conflict of Interest. A party to the mediation or arbitration who believes that the assigned mediator or arbitrator has a conflict of interest must promptly ~~shall~~ bring the issue to the attention of the mediator or arbitrator, as applicable, and to the other parties. If the mediator or arbitrator does not withdraw, and the movant is dissatisfied with this decision, the issue ~~shall~~must be brought to the attention of the ADR Program Administrator by the mediator, arbitrator or any of the parties. If the movant is dissatisfied with the decision of the ADR Program Administrator, the issue ~~shall~~will be brought to the Court's attention by the ADR Program Administrator or any party. The Court shall take such action as it deems necessary or appropriate to resolve the alleged conflict of interest.

(iv) Liability. Aside from proof of actual fraud or unethical conduct, there shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action shall arise against, any person who is appointed as a mediator or arbitrator under these Local Rules on account of any act or omission in the course and scope of such person's duties as a mediator or arbitrator.

(f) Compensation. A person will be eligible to be a paid mediator or arbitrator if that person has been admitted to the Register of Mediators maintained by the Court or otherwise has been appointed by the Court. Once eligible to serve as a mediator or arbitrator for compensation, which ~~shall~~must be at reasonable rates, the mediator or arbitrator may require compensation and reimbursement of expenses as agreed by the parties; and such compensation and reimbursement of expenses ~~shall~~will be paid without Court Order. If any party to the mediation or arbitration objects to the compensation or expenses required by the mediator or arbitrator, such dispute may be presented to the Court by the party or the mediator or arbitrator for disposition. If the mediator or arbitrator consents to serve without compensation and at the conclusion of the first full day of the mediation conference or arbitration proceeding it is determined by the mediator or arbitrator and the parties that additional time will be both necessary and productive in order to complete the mediation or arbitration, then:

(i) If the mediator or arbitrator consents to continue to serve without compensation, the parties may agree to continue the mediation conference or arbitration.

(ii) If the mediator or arbitrator does not consent to continue to serve without compensation, the fees and expenses ~~shall~~must be on such terms as are satisfactory to the mediator or arbitrator and the parties, subject to Court approval. Where the parties have agreed to pay such fees and expenses, the parties ~~shall~~must share equally all such fees and expenses unless the parties agree to some other allocation. The Court may determine a different allocation, if the parties cannot agree to an allocation.

(iii) If the estate is to be charged with such expense, the mediator or arbitrator may be reimbursed for actual transportation expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of duties.

(g) Administrative Fee. The mediator or arbitrator ~~shall~~must be entitled to an administrative fee of $250, payable upon his or her acceptance of the appointment, in every dispute referred to mediation, except a proceeding or matter in a consumer case. The administrative fee ~~shall~~must be a credit against any fee actually paid to the mediator or arbitrator in such proceeding or matter.

(h) Party Unable to Afford. If the Court determines that a party to a matter assigned to mediation or arbitration cannot afford to pay the fees and costs of the mediator or arbitrator, the Court may appoint a mediator or arbitrator to serve pro bono as to that party.

Rule 9019-3 Assignment of Disputes to Mediation or Voluntary Arbitration.

(a) Stipulation of Parties. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Court may refer a dispute pending before it to mediation and, upon consent of the parties, to arbitration. During a mediation, the parties may stipulate to allow the mediator, if qualified as an arbitrator, to hear and arbitrate the dispute.

(b) Safeguards in Consent to Voluntary Arbitration. Matters may proceed to voluntary arbitration by consent where

(c) Arbitrator Qualifications and Appointment. In addition to fulfilling the qualifications of a mediator found in Local Rule 9019-2(b), a person qualifying as an arbitrator hereunder ~~must~~will be certified as an arbitrator through a qualifying program. An arbitrator ~~shall~~must be appointed (and may be disqualified) in the same manner as in Local Rule 9019-2(e). The arbitrator ~~shall~~will be liable only to the extent provided in Local Rule 9019-2(e)(iv).

An arbitration award made by an arbitrator, along with proof of service of such award on the other party by the prevailing party, ~~shall~~must be filed with the Clerk promptly after the arbitration hearing is concluded. The Clerk ~~shall~~must place under seal the contents of any arbitration award made hereunder and the contents ~~shall~~will not be known to any Judge who might be assigned to the matter until the Court has entered a final judgment in the action or the action has otherwise terminated.

(ii) Entering Judgment of Arbitration Award. Arbitration awards ~~shall~~will be entered as the judgment of the Court after the time has expired for requesting a determination de novo, with no such request having been filed. The judgment so entered ~~shall~~will be subject to the same provisions of law and ~~shall~~will have the same force and effect as a judgment of the Court, except that the judgment ~~shall~~will not be subject to review in any other court by appeal or otherwise.

(f) Determination De Novo of Arbitration Awards.

(i) Time for Filing Demand. Within ~~twenty-eight (28)~~30 days after the filing of an arbitration award under Local Rule 9019-4(e) with the Clerk, any party may file a written demand for a determination de novo with the Court.

(iii) Exclusion of Evidence of Arbitration. The Court ~~shall~~will not admit at the determination de novo any evidence that there has been an arbitration proceeding, the nature or amount of any award or any other matter concerning the conduct of the arbitration proceeding, unless

(A) The evidence would otherwise be admissible in the Court under the Federal Rules of Evidence; or

(B) The parties have otherwise stipulated.

(g) This Local Rule shall not apply to arbitration under 9 U.S.C. § 3, if applicable.

Rule 9019-5 Mediation.

(iv) Attendance at Mediation Conference.

(A) Persons Required to Attend. (ii) Protection of Information Disclosed to the Mediator or During Mediation. (e) Recommendations by Mediator. The mediator is not required to prepare written comments or recommendations to the parties. Mediators may present a written settlement recommendation memorandum to attorneys or pro se litigants, but not to the Court.

(f) Post-Mediation Procedures.

If the mediation conference does not result in a resolution of all of the disputes in the assigned matter, the matter ~~shall~~will proceed to trial or hearing under the Court's scheduling orders.

(i) Modification of ADR Procedure. Any party seeking to deviate from, or propose procedures or obligations in addition to, the Local Rules governing ADR ~~shall comply with Local Rule 7001-1(a)(i)~~must file a motion with the Court for requested relief.

The time period ~~provided hereunder~~ to file the Certificate is not extended by the parties' agreement to extend the Defendant's response deadline under the Summons.

If the Defendant files the Certificate under this Local Rule, the parties may agree to extend the Defendant's response deadline to 14 days after the date the mediation is concluded by stipulation filed with the Court. Plaintiff must pay the fees and costs of the mediator. The mediator must be appointed subject to Local Rule 9019-2(e). Within 7 days after the filing of the Certificate, the parties shall file a stipulation of appointment of a mediator in the form as provided under Local Form 119, if not the court will assign a mediator. ~~(iv) Mediation of All Claims. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the Defendant's election to proceed to mediation under subsection (j)(iii) operates as a referral of all claims against the Defendant in the underlying adversary proceeding.~~

The stay provided for under this subsection shall automatically terminate upon the filing of the Certificate of Completion.~~

~~(B) Agreement to and Filing of Scheduling Order after Conclusion of Mediation. If the mediation does not result in the resolution of the litigation between the parties to the mediation, then within fourteen (14) days after the entry of the Certificate of Completion on the adversary docket, the parties to the mediation shall confer regarding the adjustment of the date and time frames set forth in the scheduling order entered by the Court so that~~ such dates and time frames are calculated from the date of completion of mediation. The parties shall further agree to a related form of scheduling order or stipulation and proposed order, and the plaintiff shall file such proposed scheduling order or stipulation and proposed order on the docket of the adversary proceeding under certification of counsel. If the parties do not agree to the form of scheduling order or stipulation as required hereunder and the timely filing thereof, then the parties shall promptly contact the Court to schedule a hearing to consider the entry of an amended scheduling order.

(C) Absence of Scheduling Order. The terms of this subsection (viii) apply only if the Court enters a form of scheduling order in the underlying adversary proceeding prior to the conclusion of mediation.

(ix) The Mediation Conference.

(A) Persons Required to Attend. A representative of each party who has full authority to negotiate and settle the matter on behalf of the party must attend the mediation in person. P. 9027(a)(1) that a notice of removal must contain a statement that upon removal of the claim or cause of action the party filing the notice does or does not consent to entry of final orders or judgments by the Court. PART X. MODALITIES OF COURT-TO-COURT COMMUNICATION

Scope and Definitions

~~1.~~ (a) These Modalities apply to direct communications (written or oral) between courts in specific cases of cross-border proceedings relating to insolvency or adjustment of debt opened in more than one jurisdiction ("Parallel Proceedings"). Nothing in this document precludes indirect means of communication between courts, such as through the parties or by exchange of transcripts, etc. This document is subject to any applicable law.

~~2.~~ (b) These Modalities govern only the mechanics of communication between courts in Parallel Proceedings. For the principles of communication (e.g., that court-to-court communications should not interfere with or derogate from the jurisdiction or the exercise of jurisdiction by a court in any proceedings, etc.), reference may be made to the Guidelines for Communication and Cooperation between Courts in ~~Cross-Border~~Cross- Border Insolvency Matters (the "Guidelines") issued by the Judicial Insolvency Network in October 2016, adopted in the Local Rules in 2017 as APPENDIX A hereto.

~~3.~~ (c) These Modalities contemplate contact being initiated by an "Initiating Judge" (defined below). The parties before such ~~judge~~Judge may request him or her to initiate such contact, or the Initiating Judge may seek it on his or her own initiative.

~~a.~~ (i) "Initiating Judge" refers to the ~~judge~~Judge initiating communication in the first instance;

~~b.~~ (ii) "Receiving Judge" refers to the ~~judge~~Judge receiving communication in the first instance;

~~c.~~ (iii) "Facilitator" refers to the person(s) designated by the court where the Initiating Judge sits or the court where the Receiving Judge sits (as the case may be) to initiate or receive communications on behalf of the Initiating Judge or the Receiving Judge in relation to Parallel Proceedings.

Designation of Facilitator

~~5.~~ (e) Each court may designate one or more ~~judges~~Judges or administrative officials as the Facilitator. It is recommended that, where the Facilitator is not a ~~judge~~Judge, a ~~judge~~Judge be designated to supervise the initial steps in the communication process. The Facilitator appointed by the Court is the Clerk.

~~6.~~ (f) Courts should prominently publish the identities and contact details of their Facilitators, such as on their websites.

~~7.~~(g) Courts should prominently list the language(s) in which initial communications may be made and the technology available to facilitate communication between or among courts (e.g., telephonic and/or video conference capabilities, any secure channel email capacity, etc.). The Court identifies English as the language in which initial communications may be made.

Initiating Communication

~~8.~~(h) To initiate communication in the first instance, the Initiating Judge may require the parties over whom he or she exercises jurisdiction to obtain the identity and contact details of the Facilitator of the other court in the Parallel Proceedings, unless the information is already known to the Initiating Judge.

~~9.~~(i) The first contact with the Receiving Judge should be in writing, including by email, from the Facilitator of the Initiating Judge's court to the Facilitator of the Receiving Judge's court, and contain the following:

~~a.~~(i) the name and contact details of the Facilitator of the Initiating Judge's court;

~~b.~~(ii) the name and title of the Initiating Judge as well as contact details of the Initiating Judge in the event that the Receiving Judge wishes to contact the Initiating Judge directly and such contact is acceptable to the Initiating Judge;

~~c.~~(iii) the reference number and title of the case filed before the Initiating Judge and the reference number and title (if known; otherwise, some other identifier) of the case filed before the Receiving Judge in the Parallel Proceedings;

~~d.~~(iv) the nature of the case (with due regard to confidentiality concerns);

~~e.~~(v) whether the parties before the Initiating Judge have consented to the communication taking place (if there is any order of court, direction or protocol for court-to-court communication for the case approved by the Initiating Judge, this information should also be provided);

~~f.~~(vi) if appropriate, the proposed date and time for the communication requested (with due regard to time differences); and

~~g.~~(vii)the specific issue(s) on which communication is sought by the Initiating Judge.

Arrangements for Communication

~~10.~~(j) The Facilitator of the Initiating Judge's court and the Facilitator of the Receiving Judge's court may communicate fully with each other to establish appropriate arrangements for the communication without the necessity for participation of counsel or the parties unless otherwise ordered by one of the courts.

~~11.~~(k)The time, method and language of communication should be to the satisfaction of the Initiating Judge and the Receiving Judge, with due regard given to the need for efficient management of the Parallel Proceedings.

~~12.~~(l) Where translation or interpretation services are required, appropriate arrangements shall be made, as agreed by the courts. Where written communication is provided through translation, the communication in its original form should also be provided.

~~13.~~(m) Where it is necessary for confidential information to be communicated, a secure means of communication should be employed where possible.

Communication Between Initiating Judge and Receiving Judge

~~14.~~(n)After the arrangements for communication have been made, discussion of the specific issue(s) on which communication was sought by the Initiating Judge and subsequent communications in relation thereto should, as far as possible, be carried out between the Initiating Judge and the Receiving Judge in accordance with any protocol or order for communication and cooperation in the Parallel Proceedings (see Guideline 2 in APPENDIX A).

~~15.~~(o)If the Receiving Judge wishes to ~~by-pass~~bypass the use of a Facilitator, and the Initiating Judge has indicated that he or she is amenable, the ~~judges~~Judges may communicate with each other about the arrangements for the communication without the necessity for the participation of counsel or the parties.

~~16.~~(p)Nothing in this document should limit the discretion of the Initiating Judge to contact the Receiving Judge directly in exceptional circumstances.

Limitation on Effect of Communication

(q) With respect to communication contemplated under this Part X, a court is entitled at all times to exercise its independent jurisdiction and authority with respect to matters presented to it and the conduct of the parties appearing before it.

(r) Participation by a court in cross-border communication does not imply:

(i) a waiver or compromise by the court of any powers, responsibilities or authority;

(ii) a substantive determination of any matter before the court;

(iii) a waiver by any of the parties of any of their substantive or procedural rights;

(iv) submission to the jurisdiction of other courts participating in the communication; or

(v) any limitation, extension or enlargement of the jurisdiction of the participating courts.

GUIDELINES FOR COMMUNICATION AND COOPERATION BETWEEN COURTS IN CROSS-BORDER INSOLVENCY MATTERS

INTRODUCTION

~~A.~~ (a) The overarching objective of these Guidelines is to improve in the interests of all stakeholders the efficiency and effectiveness of cross-border proceedings relating to insolvency or adjustment of debt opened in more than one jurisdiction ("Parallel Proceedings") by enhancing coordination and cooperation among courts under whose supervision such proceedings are being conducted. These Guidelines represent best practice for dealing with Parallel Proceedings.

~~B.~~ (b) In all Parallel Proceedings, these Guidelines should be considered at the earliest practicable opportunity.

~~C.~~ (c) In particular, these Guidelines aim to promote:

(i) the efficient and timely coordination and administration of Parallel Proceedings;

(ii) the administration of Parallel Proceedings with a view to ensuring relevant stakeholders' interests are respected;

(iii) the identification, preservation, and maximization of the value of the debtor's assets, including the debtor's business;

(iv) the management of the debtor's estate in ways that are proportionate to the amount of money involved, the nature of the case, the complexity of the issues, the number of creditors and the number of jurisdictions involved in Parallel Proceedings;

(v) the sharing of information in order to reduce costs; and

(vi) the avoidance or minimization of litigation, costs and inconvenience to the parties[1] in Parallel Proceedings.

~~D.~~ (d) These Guidelines should be implemented in each jurisdiction in such manner as the jurisdiction deems fit.[2]

~~E.~~ (e) These Guidelines are not intended to be exhaustive and in each case consideration ought to be given to the special requirements in that case.

[1] The term "parties" when used in these Guidelines shall be interpreted broadly.

[2] Possible modalities for the implementation of these Guidelines include practice directions and commercial guides.

~~F.~~ (f) Courts should consider in all cases involving Parallel Proceedings whether and how to implement these Guidelines. Courts should encourage and where necessary direct, if they have the power to do so, the parties to make the necessary applications to the court to facilitate such implementation by a protocol or order derived from these Guidelines and encourage them to act so as to promote the objectives and aims of these Guidelines wherever possible.

ADOPTION AND INTERPRETATION

Guideline 1: In furtherance of paragraph F above, the courts should encourage administrators in Parallel Proceedings to cooperate in all aspects of the case, including the necessity of notifying the courts at the earliest practicable opportunity of issues present and potential that may (a) affect those proceedings and (b) benefit from communication and coordination between the courts. For the purpose of these Guidelines, "administrator" includes a liquidator, trustee, judicial manager, administrator in administration proceedings, ~~debtor-in-possession~~debtor-in- possession in a reorganization or scheme of arrangement, or any fiduciary of the estate or person appointed by the court.

Guideline 2: Where a court intends to apply these Guidelines (whether in whole or in part and with or without modification) in particular Parallel Proceedings, it will need to do so by a protocol or an order,[3] following an application by the parties or pursuant to a direction of the court if the court has the power to do so.

Guideline 3: Such protocol or order should promote the efficient and timely administration of Parallel Proceedings. It should address the coordination of requests for court approvals of related decisions and actions when required and communication with creditors and other parties. To the extent possible, it should also provide for timesaving procedures to avoid unnecessary and costly court hearings and other proceedings.

Guideline 4: These Guidelines when implemented are not intended to:

(i) interfere with or derogate from the jurisdiction or the exercise of jurisdiction by a court in any proceedings including its authority or supervision over an administrator in those proceedings;

(ii) interfere with or derogate from the rules or ethical principles by which an administrator is bound according to any applicable law and professional rules;

(iii) prevent a court from refusing to take an action that would be manifestly contrary to the public policy of the jurisdiction; or

(iv) confer or change jurisdiction, alter substantive rights, interfere with any function or duty arising out of any applicable law, or encroach upon any applicable law.

[3] In the normal case, the parties will agree on a protocol derived from these Guidelines and obtain the approval of each court in which the protocol is to apply.

Guideline 5: For the avoidance of doubt, a protocol or order under these Guidelines is procedural in nature. It should not constitute a limitation on or waiver by the court of any powers, responsibilities, or authority or a substantive determination of any matter in controversy before the court or before the other court or a waiver by any of the parties of any of their substantive rights and claims.

Guideline 6: In the interpretation of these Guidelines or any protocol or order under these Guidelines, due regard shall be given to their international origin and to the need to promote good faith and uniformity in their application.

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN COURTS

Guideline 7: A court may receive communications from a foreign court and may respond directly to them. Such communications may occur for the purpose of the orderly making of submissions and rendering of decisions by the courts, and to coordinate and resolve any procedural, administrative or preliminary matters relating to any joint hearing where Annex A is applicable. Such communications may take place through the following methods or such other method as may be agreed by the two courts in a specific case:

(i) Sending or transmitting copies of formal orders, judgments, opinions, reasons for decision, endorsements, transcripts of proceedings or other documents directly to the other court and providing advance notice to counsel for affected parties in such manner as the court considers appropriate.

(ii) Directing counsel to transmit or deliver copies of documents, pleadings, affidavits, briefs or other documents that are filed or to be filed with the court to the other court in such fashion as may be appropriate and providing advance notice to counsel for affected parties in such manner as the court considers appropriate.

(iii) Participating in two-way communications with the other court, in which case Guideline 8 should be considered.

Guideline 8: In the event of communications between courts, other than on procedural matters, unless otherwise directed by any court involved in the communications whether on an ex parte basis or otherwise, or permitted by a protocol, the following shall apply:

(i) In the normal case, parties may be present.

(ii) If the parties are entitled to be present, advance notice of the communications shall be given to all parties in accordance with the rules of procedure applicable in each of the courts to be involved in the communications and the communications between the courts shall be recorded and may be transcribed. A written transcript may be prepared from a recording of the communications that, with the approval of each court involved in the communications, may be treated as the official transcript of the communications.

(iii) Copies of any recording of the communications, of any transcript of the communications prepared pursuant to any direction of any court involved in the communications, and of any official transcript prepared from a recording may be filed as part of the record in the proceedings and made available to the parties and subject to such directions as to confidentiality as any court may consider appropriate.

(iv) The time and place for communications between the courts shall be as directed by the courts. Personnel other than ~~judges~~Judges in each court may communicate with each other to establish appropriate arrangements for the communications without the presence of the parties.

Guideline 9: A court may direct that notice of its proceedings be given to parties in proceedings in another jurisdiction. All notices, applications, motions, and other materials served for purposes of the proceedings before the court may be ordered to be provided to such other parties by making such materials available electronically in a publicly accessible system or by facsimile transmission, certified or registered mail or delivery by courier, or in such other manner as may be directed by the court in accordance with the procedures applicable in the court.

APPEARANCE IN COURT

Guideline 10: A court may authorize a party, or an appropriate person, to appear before and be heard by a foreign court, subject to approval of the foreign court to such appearance.

Guideline 11: If permitted by its law and otherwise appropriate, a court may authorize a party to a foreign proceeding, or an appropriate person, to appear and be heard on a specific matter by it without thereby becoming subject to its jurisdiction for any purpose other than the specific matter on which the party is appearing.

CONSEQUENTIAL PROVISIONS

Guideline 12: A court shall, except on proper objection on valid grounds and then only to the extent of such objection, recognize and accept as authentic the provisions of statutes, statutory or administrative regulations, and rules of court of general application applicable to the proceedings in other jurisdictions without further proof. For the avoidance of doubt, such recognition and acceptance does not constitute recognition or acceptance of their legal effect or implications.

Guideline 13: A court shall, except upon proper objection on valid grounds and then only to the extent of such objection, accept that orders made in the proceedings in other jurisdictions were duly and properly made or entered on their respective dates and accept that such orders require no further proof for purposes of the proceedings before it, subject to its law and all such proper reservations as in the opinion of the court are appropriate regarding proceedings by way of appeal or review that are actually pending in respect of any such orders. Notice of any amendments, modifications, extensions, or appellate decisions with respect to such orders shall be made to the other court(s) involved in Parallel Proceedings, as soon as it is practicable to do so.

Guideline 14: A protocol or order made by a court under these Guidelines is subject to such amendments, modifications, and extensions as may be considered appropriate by the court, and to reflect the changes and developments from time to time in any Parallel Proceedings. Notice of such amendments, modifications, or extensions shall be made to the other court(s) involved in Parallel Proceedings, as soon as it is practicable to do so.

ANNEX A (JOINT HEARINGS)

Annex A to these Guidelines relates to guidelines on the conduct of joint hearings. Annex A shall be applicable to, and shall form a part of these Guidelines, with respect to courts that may signify their assent to Annex A from time to time. Parties are encouraged to address the matters set out in Annex A in a protocol or order.

ANNEX A: JOINT HEARINGS

A court may conduct a joint hearing with another court. In connection with any such joint hearing, the following shall apply, or where relevant, be considered for inclusion in a protocol or order:

(i) The implementation of this Annex shall not divest nor diminish any court's respective independent jurisdiction over the subject matter of proceedings. By implementing this Annex, neither a court nor any party shall be deemed to have approved or engaged in any infringement on the sovereignty of the other jurisdiction.

(ii) Each court shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction and power over the conduct of its own proceedings and the hearing and determination of matters arising in its proceedings.

(iii) Each court should be able simultaneously to hear the proceedings in the other court. Consideration should be given as to how to provide the best audio-visual access possible.

(iv) Consideration should be given to coordination of the process and format for submissions and evidence filed or to be filed in each court.

(v) A court may make an order permitting foreign counsel or any party in another jurisdiction to appear and be heard by it. If such an order is made, consideration needs to be given as to whether foreign counsel or any party would be submitting to the jurisdiction of the relevant court and/or its professional regulations.

(vi) A court should be entitled to communicate with the other court in advance of a joint hearing, with or without counsel being present, to establish the procedures for the orderly making of submissions and rendering of decisions by the courts, and to coordinate and resolve any procedural, administrative or preliminary matters relating to the joint hearing.

(vii) A court, subsequent to the joint hearing, should be entitled to communicate with the other court, with or without counsel present, for the purpose of determining outstanding issues. Consideration should be given as to whether the issues include procedural and/or substantive matters. Consideration should also be given as to whether some or all of such communications should be recorded and preserved.
