

Rule 1013-1 Entry of Order for Relief on Involuntary Petition.

An order for relief on an involuntary petition will be entered only after (i) the filing of a consent by the putative debtor, (ii) certification of Delaware counsel to the petitioning creditor or creditors that the petition and summons were served on the putative debtor in accordance with the Fed. R. Bankr. P. and that no answer was timely filed or received, or (iii) a duly noticed hearing.
